

The review of your chapter, "Use of an intelligent voice recognition device to monitor and mitigate children with anxiety-induced asthma attack," submitted to the book I am editing, Management, Technology, and Economic Growth in Smart and Sustainable Cities, has just been completed. Although our reviewers find the topic to be important, they believe that the coverage should be strengthened before the chapter can be published.

I have compiled the feedback from reviewer evaluations for your perusal to emphasize particular changes that I feel would be best for you to make to your chapter. Please study the evaluations carefully and let me know if you have any questions about any of the comments or suggestions:

Once you have completed the revisions, please prepare a list of your responses to my and the reviewers' comments, and upload your revised chapter along with your list of responses (appended to the end of the chapter) by no later than August 7, 2023 at the following page:

Please be advised that a revision does not guarantee acceptance. The decision regarding the acceptance of your chapter depends on additional review. Also, no chapter will be accepted unless it strictly follows the manuscript guidelines, which can be found at <http://www.igi-global.com/publish/contributor-resources/before-you-write/>.

Also, for your convenience, the publisher IGI Global highly recommends eContent Pro International to its authors and editors for supplemental editorial services that can support them in further polishing their work. IGI Global authors and editors receive an exclusive discount on all these services.

Additionally, you may want to consider converting your manuscript to open access in order to increase the discoverability of your published work and accelerate its citation impact. This can be done at any time, even post-publication. Authors publishing under OA will have their work published under the CC BY 4.0 license which allows them to retain the copyright to their work with no commercial restrictions while making the research fully free and accessible to all. IGI Global offers a number of funding programs including IGI Global's OA Fee Waiver (Read and Publish) Initiative. To see if you are currently eligible for an open access Chapter Processing Charge (CPC) waiver and/or to learn more about how to benefit from the program, please contact openaccessadmin@igi-global.com for more information.

Registering for an ORCID iD: One other point in closing, is that IGI Global is actively collaborating with ORCID to collect ORCID iDs for editors and authors to help them increase the discoverability and credibility of their IGI Global scholarly contributions and research publications. Please use this link to authorize the collection and use of your ORCID iD in IGI Global's systems. Through giving IGI

Global permission to connect to your ORCID iD, it will enable them to connect it to information about your research activities stored in the eEditorial Discovery submission system, making your record more credible and showcasing you as a valuable contributor.

Thank you for your interest and your diligent work on your chapter manuscript. I greatly value your contribution and look forward to seeing your revisions! Should you have any questions, please do not hesitate to contact me.

Best wishes,
Jorge Ruiz-Vanoye
